Each wine is critically appraised on its own merit ensuring that in addition to the grand marques, there are also wines from lesser known regions that appear in the selection. This means that our list is never predictable but always reassuring in quality and selection.

We shall, of course be delighted to assist you with your choice taking into account your personal taste and choice of food. We are equally pleased to hear your feedback on individual wines, as well as the choice which we present to you. Indeed you may wish to share your experience and recommend some interesting wines to us.

There are occasion some wine & vintage may not be available due to popular demand .
